

What, How and Why - Contents

Part One Components of the language

Chap 1. Words and their Work 1 p.1

Sounds that mean something and become words
Different jobs for different words – parts of speech

Chap 2. Words and their Work 2 p.25

How words become expressions, phrases, clauses and sentences
Subject and predicate - What a sentence is about How we pick up words - learning from reading
Listening and speaking

Chap 3. Punctuation 1 p.45

Capital letters, full stops, dashes, hyphens, colons, semicolons, brackets and apostrophes

Chap 4. Punctuation 2 Commas p.63

Pauses, direct speech, inverted commas/speech marks and reported speech, lists, phrases and clauses used in apposition - repeating information to make it clearer
Separating and redirecting items – defining and non-defining phrases and clauses - organising information clearly

Part Two

Assembling the components - Understanding, analysis and effects

Chap 5. Sentences – composed p.83

Simple, compound and complex - how sentences are put together
Balanced, loose and periodic - getting the message across

Chap 6. Clauses p.97

Analysis - see how groups of words work together
Subject and predicate again - more work on the importance of knowing what it is that we are talking about and what we are saying about it

Chap 7. Key ideas p.105

Précis, summary - getting to the point, to the heart of the matter. CVs

Chap 8. Questions – beyond multiple choice and tick-boxes p.119

Different kinds of questions. Key words and ideas. Relevant answers

Comprehension questions - demonstrate your understanding

Checking your answers

Chap 9. Strengthen your comprehension skills p.129

Journalism from around the world

Show how well you really understand English

Chap 10. Questions – Challenges to our understanding p.143

Assembling answers – Discovering and choosing components

Chap 11. Sentences – functioning p.155

Indicative/interrogative/imperative/subjunctive moods

Statements, questions, instructions, wishes and hopes and exclamations

Implicit and explicit meaning

Passive and active voices

Fact and opinion

Chap 12. Sentences – assembled and put to work p.171

Application and purpose

Chap 13. Paragraphs p.179

Accounts, articles, contracts, essays, letters, reports, stories, description, discussion, enquiries, entertainment, information, instruction, invitation and persuasion

Chap 14. Bogey-men p.201

Grammar - easier than you think – linked to punctuation

Spelling, handwriting, redundant words

Chap 15. Your writing p.217

Speech into writing. Varying how we write it – greater variety of expression in writing. Writing for a variety of purposes

Planning a piece of writing. Making notes. Trying it out

Organising our words. Testing our writing

Building confidence

Glossary and links to the UK national curriculum p.228

Items from the National Curriculum Glossary p.231

Essentials

For tutors – ways to engage students with the material – p.232

For students – reminders for students in a hurry - p.252

For students and tutors – together for Chapter Eight onwards – p.260

Copyright Reserved